

IE Digital Library – How to register

In 5 steps

Register for the IE Digital Library

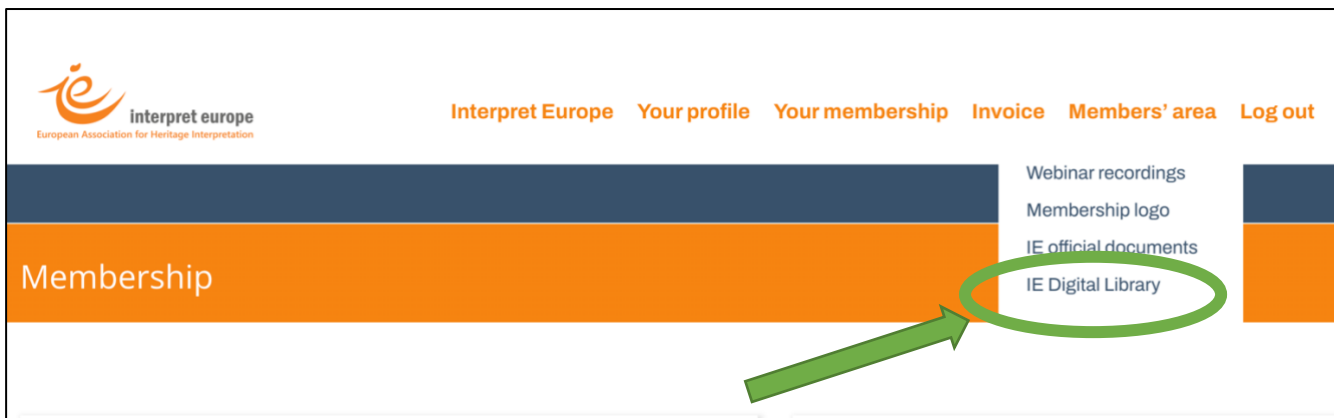

1. On IE website, log into your member area: <https://members.interpret-europe.net/login/>

- Log in to your membership account
- Text: "Please enter your e-mail and password you created during the registration process to enter Members' Area of Interpret Europe website."
- Text: "Don't hesitate to contact us if you have any issues."
- If you have been a member before 2021.
- Text: "You are already in the database! Just click on Lost password button and enter your e-mail address to get your new password in your e-mail."
- Form fields: "Username or Email Address" and "Password".
- Checkbox: "Remember Me".
- Buttons: "Log In" and "Lost Password?".

2. In the top menu, click on "Members' area" and select "IE Digital Library"

3. Under “First access only”, click on the link as shown below

IE Digital Library

Welcome to IE Digital Library, a collection of sources focussed on the world of Heritage Interpretation. The Library includes a wide variety of sources: not only articles and books, but also reports, videos, case studies, podcasts... It offers a range of useful tags and thematic categories for easy search and it allows you to create a bibliography automatically and quickly.

Do you need personalised reading advice? IE Digital Library Manager is always there for you!

First access only

If you're accessing the Library for the first time, please enter your email address in this form. You will receive a link and simple instructions to join the Library platform in approximately 24 hours.
