

List of IE webinars before June 2023

If you are an IE member, you can access these webinar recordings from your membership profile. In case of any issues, please contact office@interpret-europe.net for assistance.

- How do we, interpreters, prepare for the future?; by Ivana Jagić Boljat
- Interpretive planning at World Heritage Sites – experiences from Europe; GAHI webinars
- Living history at the Hungarian OpenAir Museum: a case study; by Zsuzsanna Nagyné Batári

2022

- Local engagement: a game of mutual trust and inspiration; by Valya Stergioti
- Does nature need interpretation?; by Marija Fajdiga
- Heritage for children through storytelling; by Ivana Zrilic
- Storytelling and Heritage; by Guy Tilkin
- Interpretation in pandemic (or post-pandemic) times. Some lessons and challenges; by Evarist March Sarlat
- How do we interpret controversial historical figures?; by Iva Klarić Vujović
- Children and heritage interpretation – Experiences as a mum and an interpreter; by Iva Caleta Plesa
- Evaluation of holistic experiences part 1 – part_2; by Helena Vičić
- How heritage interpretation is helping us preserve biodiversity in North Macedonia; by Katerina Ivanovska
- The role of heritage interpretation in exhibition planning; by Dragana Lucija Ratković Aydemir
- Hermeneutics and its relevance for practical heritage interpretation; by Thorsten Ludwig
- Heritage Interpretation across Cultures; by Samia Zitouni

2021

- Interpreting climate change – or anything – requires that interpreters understand people’s worldviews; by Jon Kohl
- Interpreter and phenomenon – who is who?; by Joanna Hajduk
- Nature interpretation in the North – Challenges and opportunities; by Eva Sandberg
- Dead man do tell tales – Interpretive difficult heritage; by Marko Trupković
- Interpretation and gamification can go hand in hand; by Iva Silla
- Heritage Interpretation for families – Why and what’s it all about; by Barbara Struys
- Seeking the universal in the “outstanding universal value” at World Heritage Sites; by Zsuzsa Tolnay,
- Interpretation for children – exploring Cornell’s Sharing Nature in relation to IE quality standards; by Janja Sivec and Urška Vilhar
- Mindful interpretation; by Thorsten Ludwig
- Museums during the online days – Engagement, authenticity, distance; by Ladislav Ptáček
- Combining IE courses with national certification systems; by Per Sonnvik

- Integrating interpretation in parks – The case of Norway; by Kristian Bjørnstad
- Geoparks and geofood – Interpreting our geoheritage through gastronomy; by Carla Silva

2020

- Playful interpretation (not only) for children; by Ondřej Vitek
- Where am I? Landscape architecture as heritage interpretation; by Angus Forbes
- The art of asking questions in heritage interpretation; by Ivana Jagić Boljat
- Co-creating sustainable tourism through heritage interpretation; by Nuria Mohedano
- The group work toolbox; by Piotr Idziak and Sebastian Waciega
- How to employ digital game-based learning in heritage sites; by Lotta Krickel
- Participatory tourism and opportunities for interpretation: A case study; by Sandy Colvine
- Co-creating an interpretive trail; by Thorsten Ludwig
- Live interpretation for creating cultural experiences; by Manuela Hrvatin
- Introducing interpretation in Polish national parks; by Alicja Fisher
- Concise questions for experienced nature guides; by Magdalena Kuś
- Culture, cities and citizens: Stories of transformation through community engagement; by Yannis Koukmas
- Benefits of integrating heritage interpretation with tourism; by Sebastian Zoepf

2019

- Agonistic heritage; by Nicole Deufel
- Interpreting nature: Contact life beyond our eyes; by Evarist March
- Heritage interpretation and communities; by Dragana Lucija Ratković Aydemir (due to copyrights issues, only presentation powerpoint is available)
- Participatory heritage interpretation and its social impacts; by Lana Domšić
- Evaluation of interpretive panels and troubles with different approaches; by Michal Medek
- How to embrace cultural diversity while fostering social cohesion; Patrick Lehnes

2018

- Participatory techniques with a purpose; by Valya Stergioti and Helena Vičič
- The 'Engaging citizens' paper; by Thorsten Ludwig